

ESTATES ENDORSEMENT

OTHER CONDITIONS

Under Conditions, the Death condition is amended to include the following:

After the death of an "insured", "we" provide coverage for the executors or administrators of an estate, but only with respect to property under their control owned by the deceased person and covered by this policy at the time of death or acquired by the Estate after the time of death.

This coverage continues until the earliest of the following occur:

- a. property title of such property is vested in the Estate, or
- b. the expiration of this policy.