  - a. The portion of "your" premium that is attributed to coverage for "certified terrorism loss" is shown in the Schedule above.

b. Coverage for "certified terrorism loss", to the extent that such coverage is provided by this policy, will be partially reimbursed by the United States Government, Department of Treasury, under a federal program. Under that program, the United States pays the following percentage of insured losses for "certified terrorism loss" that exceeds the statutorily established deductible that "we" retain:

- 1) 85%, for insured losses occurring before January 1, 2016;
- 2) 84%, for insured losses occurring during the 2016 calendar year;
- 3) 83%, for insured losses occurring during the 2017 calendar year;
- 4) 82%, for insured losses occurring during the 2018 calendar year;
- 5) 81%, for insured losses occurring during the 2019 calendar year; and
- 6) 80%, for insured losses occurring on or after January 1, 2020.

However, if aggregate insured losses attributable to terrorist acts certified under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, exceed one hundred billion dollars in a calendar year (January 1 through December 31), the Treasury will not make any payment for any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds one hundred billion dollars.

c. If the Secretary of the Treasury determines that the aggregate amount of "certified terrorism loss" has exceeded one hundred billion dollars in a calendar year (January 1 through December 31), and "we" have met "our" insurer deductible under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, "we" will not pay for any portion of "certified terrorism loss" that exceeds one hundred billion dollars. If the "certified terrorism loss" exceeds one hundred billion dollars in a calendar year (January 1 through December 31), losses up to one hundred billion dollars are subject to pro rata allocation in accordance with procedures established by the Secretary of the Treasury under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended.
